

Both Comfort and Luxury in This

Sale of Bath Robes

Big Savings for Women and Children

Special To-Day $2.98 and $3.98

o hundred Bath Robes, chosen from our new winter stock, sale to-day at very attractive prices. Choose from soft, warm Blanket and Elderdown Robes, in pretty floral designs and plaids, with shawl, roll or sailor collars, neatly trimmed with satin bands. Some have cord at waist. All colors and

(Bath Robes shown Third Floor.)

Corner Fourth and Broad Streets

Social and Personal

The marriage of Miss Mattie Wat- at home is an event of much interest dress. kins Baskervill, daughter of Mrs. Wil- to society throughout Virginia. Ham O. Bashervill, to John Marye Burton, of Newport News, son of the ladies' Auxiliary of the Temlate Robert Burton, of Prince Edward County, took place yesterday evening at 5 o'clock in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ida Watkins Ellerson, 216 East Grace Street. Only the nearest relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. T. McFaden, D. D. The drawing-rooms were decorated in quantile Church Wedding. Ham O. Bashervill, to John Marye Bur- Handsome Dinner Dance.

by the Rev. F. T. McFaden, D. D. The drawing-rooms were decorated in quantities of pink chrysanthemums, trailing vines and many lighted candles. An improvised altar of palms and Cathedral candles was arranged between the windows.

The bride entered with her dame of honor, Mrs. Lucius Cary. Her wedding gown was fashioned of white charmeuse trimmed with duchess and rose-point lace. Her long veil of illusion was fastened with a wreath of orange-blossoms, and she carried a presentation bouquet of lilies of the valley, Miss Mary Irvin Watkins was her cousin's maid of honor, and Thomas Hundley, of Newport News, attended the bridegroom as his best man. Little James Pleasants Massie and Ida Watkins Massie, wearing white followed.

Hig Church Wedding.

Fragrant white lillies and lighted candles against a background of bay trees, palms and Southern smilax, banked the altar and chancel of historic Monumental Church last evening at 8 o'clock for the marriage of Miss Louise Crutchfield, to Dr. Lawrence Taylor Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Price, of Gaia A brilliant throng of invited guests filled the church for the ceremony, which was performed by the Kev. James W. Morris, rector of the church. A unique feature of the musical program was the processional. "Rejoice, Ye Pure in Heart" sung by the full vested choir, who entered just before the bride and her attendants. Great bunches of white chrysanthemums, trailman, the dame and for the dancing which followed.

Hig Church Wedding.

Fragrant white illies and lighted candles against a background of bay trees, palms and Southern smilax, banked the altar and chancel of historic Monumental Church last evening at 8 o'clock for the marriage of Miss Louise Crutchfield, to Dr. Lawrence Taylor Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Price, of Gaia A brilliant throng of invited guests filled the church for the ceremony, which was performed by the Kev. James W. Morris, rector of the church A unique feature of the muscal program was the processional.

"Rejoice, Ye Pure in Heart" s

tumes, held the ribbons that formed an aisle, through which the bridal party passed to the altar. Both the dame and maid of honor were gowned alike in Helen pink charmeuse finished with crystal overdresses and chiffon, and carried big bouquets of pink roses and orchids.

Following a wedding journey, Mr and Mrs. Burton will make their home in Newport News. The wedding is one of the most important of the season since it unites two families long prominent in the social history of the State, and although celebrated very quietly are the season of the season and although celebrated very quietly and his best man, E. M. Crutchfield, brother of, the bride, and Mrs. Robert M. Pulliam was her sister's matron of

IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND

The Dunlop Mills Richard Va.

Rosemary Pickles

At Good Grocers Try a 25c Bottle

Rosenbloom, became the bride of Laur-ence L. Loewner, of Harrisonburg. In the front drawing-room masses of palms er of yellow blooms dropped from the chandelier into a huge basket of gol-den chrysanthemums and garlands of flowers were festooned on the mantel. The bride entered with her father, who gave her away. She wore a handsome gown of white charmeuse with a bodice of real lace elaborately embroidered in pearls. Her long veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap fasabout the bodice. She carried a French bouquet of Lady Hellington roses and lilies of the valley. Oscar Samuels, of Baltimore, acted as the bridegroom's heet made.

Prominent Engagement.
Says the Baitimore Sun:
"The engagement is announced of

"The engagement is announced of H. Granger Gaither, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Gaither, of Oak Grange, Catonsville, to Miss Edith Louise Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Riley, of New York, formerly of Pittsburgh. No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Riley made her debut last season, and is well known in Baltimore, where she visited frequently. Mr. Gaither is a brother of Mrs. Spencer Wyman Aldrich, of New

"The Pickle Without a Substitute"

Gas Ranges Reduced 10%

Players-tko finest made at

DETROIT GAS RANGES. ALASKA REPRIGERATORS, SOLD ONLY BY

JURGENS

THE REINACH CO., Inc.

Misses' Outer Apparel.

New Method Gas Ranges

PETTIT & CO.'S?

The House of Fashion Bernard, Frances & Co., Broad and Fifth Streets

Middleburg, Va. He is a member of a number of prominent clubs." Mr. Gaither is an alumnus of the University of Virginia, and has a num-ber of friends in Richmond.

York, and George W. Galther, Jr., of her of friends in Richmond.

Place of Marringe Changed.

Owing to scarlet fever having developed in the family of the bride on the evo of the wedding, the marriage of the Rev. R. H. White and Miss Margaret Parrish will take place at the home of the pastor, Rev. J. J. Wicker, instead of at the home of the bride.

Because of these unavoidable conditions, the marriage will be private.

Important Meetings To-Day.

Ginter Park School on Fricay morn-ing, October 31, at 11 o'clock. All pa-trons and friends of the school are ordially invited to attend. nion G. Williams will make the ad-

Colonel W. Gordon McCabe has gone to New York City, where he will spend of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Huntly Gor-don at their country place near Balti-

Major and Mrs. Roy Wonson.

Former Governor J. Hoge Tyler, of short stay in this city.

the Wallerstein-Goldstein wedding.

C. W. ANTRIM & CO., DISTRIBUTORS SCHOOL SHOES

SHORS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS $1.50 to $3.00, y Pair Guaranteed.

HAMMOND

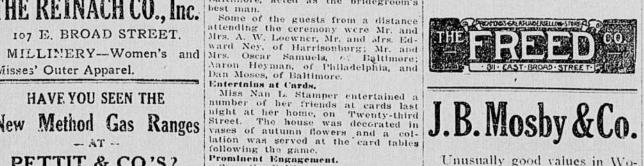

"Flowers of Guaranteed Freshness."

Tel. Madison 630.

tened with orange-blossoms, and sprays of the same flowers caught the veil to the court train of her gown. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids. Miss Rae Sydnor & Hundley Rosenbloom, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore a lovely gown of gold-colored charmeuse with an overskirt of gold lace and finished with real lace

HANDSOME FURNITURE

this season they have ever exhibited. GIFT PIECES A SPECIALTY.

Unusually good values in Women's Tailored Suits.

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 West Broad St. Cash or Credit.

Many Christmas items now on display in our Leather Goods

$1.00 TANGO BAGS in plain, fancy moire: some with coin purse and some with mirror; special Seal Leather Bags, | Real Morocco Leath-large 9-inch size, leath- er Bags, in red, brown, worth $1.50, for er lined, brass and green and black, 6-inch nickel trimmed; well size; a good 75c value, $1.00 50c

Because of these unavoidable conditions, the marriage will be private.

Important Meetings To-Dny.

The annual meetings of the Huguenot Evangelical Society will take place at noon to-day in the First Presbyterian Church. The reports of the society will be read and the election of officers will take place. Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., will preside, assisted by Rev. W. J. Young. D. D., and Rev. Landon R. Mason, D. D.

The regular monthly meeting of the Confederate Memorial Literary Society will be held this morning at 11 o'clock at the Confederate Museum. All members are urged to be present.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club.

The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met on Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Cannon at their home, 924 Park Avenue. Three tables were engaged, and the highest score was made by Miss Sue Gordon and Mrs. Cannon The club will be estaticated.

gaged, and the highest score was made by Miss Sue Gordon and Mrs. Cam-non. The club will be entertained next Monday evening by Mrs. C. W. P. Brock at her home, 205 East Franklin

Patrons' Day will be observed at the BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

Lady Hamilton Lang and her daugh-er, Miss Victoria Lang, are visiting ir, and Mrs. John Stewart Bryan at Miss Phoche Satterfield, of Germantown, Pa., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Walker, at 806 Park Avenue.

Miss Adkins, of this city, is the Philip E. Strause, of Shanghai, China, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Strause, in this city.

Staunton, have been stopping at the mitted to Parl Jefferson Hotel here for several days, for ratification.

Mrs. C. R. Caldwell and Miss Jane Al-

Judge Alvin T. Embrey has returned his home in Fredericksburg after

Mrs. John C. Hann is visiting rela-ives at White Stone, Long Island, for

Walter Lippman, of New York, will the the guest of Edwin Levy here for trade, and to her haval operations in at the taking of Seringapatam, and for the event of hostilities. As there is his capture of the Cape of Good Hope but little prospect of any departure of He also distinguished himself in Egypt Great Britain from this attitude, and against Bonaparte; and at the bom-as the great maritime powers have bardment of Copenhagen, where he was London, It looks very much as if there would be no Peace Congress the year and predecessor was a veteran of the after next.

Crimean War and of the Indian Muti-

I wonder how many people crossing of the House of Baird of Saughton, the leading statesmen of Chile.

Unfortunately for him, before the final deals were consummated in Loudon, he was exposed there, and the negotiations fell through. It speaks volumes for his eleverness that despite the publicity given on that, oc-casion to his criminal antecedents, he

Of course, this Chile episode did not precisely tend to improve the credit of the Latin republics of the Western Hemisphere in Europe, nor to increase the somewhat battered prestige of their official representatives abroad.

Bags, leather lined and well made; a good $4

$2.98

as these are inevitable in the case of continual changes of government distributed among the adherents of the victorious dictator, without much regard to their antecedents. But it is of the diplomatic corps, should have

comrade, General Sir John

Dance at Hampden-Sidney

[Special to The Times-Dispatch] Hampden-Sidney, Va. October 28.— The first of the fall dances was held and tastefully decorated in evergreens and college colors. Kessnich's String for the occasion. Those in attendance with Mr. Ebel; Miss Thomas of Romney with Mr. Ebel; Miss Wimbish, of South Boston, with Mr. Buchanan; Miss Banks, of Petersburg, with Mr. Schack, leford; Miss Strange, of Panville, with Mr. Goldborough; Miss Jarman, o Farnville, with Mr. Dunnington, Stags Messrs, Lee Walker, Sanudars, Carrier

Messrs Lee, Walker, Saunders, Carring-ton, A. B. Peters, Scott, Thompson, Sterne, Donnally, Rice, Venable, Bugg,

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Antiers, Va. October 28.—Mr. and Mrs. James M. Gill, of Antiers, an-nounce the engagement of their daugh-marriage to take place the last of No

WARNS OF DANGER IN MINES

Berlin, October 28.—An apparatus for the prevention of expolsions in mines to-day was demonstrated by Professor

Fritz Haber, director of the Institute of Physical Chemistry, in the presence of Emperor William. The demonstration was the feature of the annual meeting of the Emperor William Scien-Haber's apparatus combines the principles of the Davy election lamps. I already has been tried in the govern-ment mines. Many scientists in Ger-many have been endeavoring to invent

Professor Haber has named the ap furnished music and college colors. Kessnich's Band, of Richmond, furnished the rooms of the Comity Club o Friday and Saturday nights of last week. The hall was brilliantly lighted PEACE CONGRESS MAY PEACE CONGRESS MAY NOT BE HELD IN 1915 Indefinite Postponement Likely Prequent revolutions and changes of government, especially among the government charges.

as Result of Attitude of Great Britain.

INTERNATIONAL Peace Congresses tensively at The Hague-it was so agreed clubs in Europe which extend their upon at their first meeting there in hospitality to representatives of fortion relating to neutrality in naval warfare were referred for further consideration to a conference held in London two years later. This resulted in through revolution, and where posts of an international agreement, known as envoy, and of secretary of legation, are the Declaration of London, which re-ceived the signature and approval of the English delegates. The declara-tion, however, necessitates a radical medification of a number of English the English delegates. statutes, especially of those laws deal-ing with prize courts. The result was the declaration had to be mitted to Parliament at Westminster

The House of Commons, at the in-stance of the government, voted in favor of the declaration, in spite of the strenuous opposition of the great favor of the declaration of the great the strengous opposition of the great chambers of commerce, and of the big got the better of the then viceroy, now shipping interests of the United King-dom, and in fact of the entire British empire. It was in deference to these empire. It was in deference to these that the House of Lords, by that the House of Lords, by honor to J. Coleman Drayton. pass the Declaration of London, and has persisted in that attitude ever since. It therefore remains a dead letter in so far as Great Britain is concerned, through his father's death, to the baronetty as well as to the family estates in Fast Lethian, is, like all his im-

so far as Great Britain is concerned.

The maritime powers who took part in etcy as well as to the family estate in the Declaration of London now define the Declaration now define the Declaration of London now define the Declaration now define the Declara clare that it would be entirely use- mediate forbears, a soldier, having less to assemble in international con- served in the Black Watch. Although gress at The Hague, as long as the he has been married for a number of British Parliament declines to ratify years, he has only a daughter, and at the Declaration of London, which was the outcome of the last congress. It is only fair to add that in this matter the English House of Lords enjoys the support of practically the greater portion of the British people, who see in the provisions of the Declaration of London a grave peril to British shipping interests, to the sumplying of the Six David's hyporate was bettered. United Kingdom with foodstuffs in time of war, and intolerable restrictions to the activities of her maritime where he headed the storming party intimated their intention of refusing associated with Nelson; while at the to attend the Peace Congress of 1915, tattle of Corunna he lost an arm, just unless England yields, in accordance with the terms of the Declaration of friend and comrade, General Sir John London, it looks very much as if there Moore the Atlantic on board the Carmania, or the Atlantic on board the Carmania, or who according to the Exchequer Rolls who have heard of that great Cunard of 1331, were already flourishing in in the world the place is from which tury.

this huge vessel takes its name, Problem (Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood, Company.) ocean liner, have any idea just where Aberdeenshire in the fourteenth cen oly not one in 10,000 could answer fhand. It may, therefore, be of interest to explain that Carmania is the Kirman, and was the scene in 1795 of one of the most terrible events in the history of Asia. Agha Mohammed, founder of the now reigning Kajar dynasty in Persia, took the place by storm, after a long siege, only to find storm, after a long siege, only to find that his defeated rival had managed to effect his escape with three of his adherents. In his rage he ordered 70,000 eyes of the inhabitants to be on the reason of the inhabitants to be brought to him. He counted them with his dagger point, and then, turning to the general whom he had intrusted with this appallingly cruel mission, he exclaimed: "If only one had been missing, I would have made up the number with your own eyes."

for the occasion. Those in attendance were Miss Archambeau, of Philadelphia, were Miss Archambeau, of Philadelphia, with Mr. Pendleton; Miss Hanes, of Buckingham, with Mr. Arbuckle; Miss Moore, of Norfolk, with Mr. Hodges; Mrs Yaughan; Miss Bleecker, of South Boston, with Mr. Fitzgerald; Miss Adams, of Smithfield, with Mr. Gregory; Miss Sublett, of Staanton, with Mr. Loos, Wiss Wiss Wood of Norfolk with Mr. Loos, Wiss Wood of Norfolk with Mr. Pendleton; Miss Miss Wood of Norfolk with Mr. Pendleton; Miss Miss Wood of Norfolk with Mr. Pendleton; Miss Hanes, of Stanton, with Mr. Pendleton; Miss Hanes, of Norfolk, with Mr. Arbuckle; Miss Moore, of Norfolk, with Mr. Vaughan; Miss Bleecker, of South Pendleton; Miss Hanes, of Norfolk, with Mr. Vaughan; Miss Bleecker, of South Pendleton; Miss Hanes, of Norfolk, with Mr. Pendleton; Miss Hanes, of Norfolk, with Mr. Vaughan; Miss Bleecker, of South Pendleton; Miss Miss Pendleton; Miss Pendlet

p the number with your own eyes" ory; Miss Sublett, of Staunton, wit Mr. Jones; Miss Wool, of Norfolk, wit The divorce suit brought in New Mr. Clarke; Miss Thomas, of Romney York by Mrs. James J. Williams, daughter of Samuel Newman, of Rothschild & Newman, cotton merchants, in New York, has evoked memories of the many swindles of her ex-convict husband on this side of the Atlantic. But the career of this particularly clever adventurer, whose real name is Harry Silverberg, has been were even still more extraordinary abroad. Mrs. H. T. Graham, Mrs. W. H. Whit-For in London he was able to deceive ing, Jr., and Mrs. Sublett. name is Harry Silverberg, has been such men as the Duke of Montrose, Lord Ribblesdale and Lord Grimthorpe, dnor & Hundley the two latter being known as particularly wide awake; also Lord Balfour, of Burleigh, a member of the last Unionist Chimet, and others of equal light and leading, to the extent that they not only entered into busi-ness relations with him, but even put him up at their clubs, including the St. James's, the Cocoanut, etc.

It is only fair to these English dupes of his to explain that Silverberg, despite his record as an international crook, and as an ex-convict of penitentiaries in the United States, in England and on the Continent of Europe, was able to submit to them credentials from the President and from the Cabi-net ministers of the republic of Chile. authorizing him to treat in their name tifle Foundation with English financiers for the con- Haber's appara struction of railroads and other public ing been equally successful in duping such an apparatus since the Empere in October of last year, suggested the idea. paratus "the fire-damp whistle." It consists of a pair of whistles, one sup-plied with normal air and the other casion to his criminal antecedents, he with mine air, and it gives an unmis-should still have managed to continuo takable screech when the danger-point his career of adventure and fraud in in the mine atmosphere is approaching

> enlidren cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

FIGHT ON KEEZELL WAXING WARMER

Dr. Funkhouser Enters Campaign With Attack on Democratic Machine.

Harrisonburg, Va., October 28.—With ne week of the political campaign left, be fight in Rockingham is waxing carmer and warmer. Congressman armer and warmer. Congressman ames Hay came from Washington and poke at Cross Keys to-night in behalf former Senator George B. Reczell, ho, with Dr. C. H. Roiston, is a can-date for the Legislature against Har-son and Earman, Republicans. Keefrequent revolutions and changes of government, especially among the smaller republies, bring into their diplomatic service all serts of queer fishes, and, thanks to this Latinguistics, and thanks to this Latinguistics, and thanks to the figured expenses the says that he will be state Normal School in Harrison-burse but says that he understands that burg, but says that he understands that the "machine," through Swanson, then a candidate for Governor, made a deal upon at their first meeting there in 1899—were to take place in the capital of the Netherlands every eight years. The second was held in 1907. The next one it was decided should occur there the year after next, that is to say, in 1915, in Andrew Carnegie's new Palace of Peace.

But doubts have arisen as to whether it will not be indefinitely postponed. This is owing to the attitude of Great Britain. At the congress of 1907 the custy "done time" as a swindler in a European penitentiary. Things such Keezell twits Senator Paul and the Republican platform for not including the recall in the platform along with the initiative and referendum Keezell wants to know if they are afraid that Rockingham would "recall" Paul for voting against the rolling stock bill and against the enabling act rather hard that such men should be allowed to style themselves members social prerogatives accorded to pro- at fessional diplomats of reputable states. Wi at Mt. Carmel Christian Church, near Walters, Va. There are 150 delegates in attendance. Rev. C. H. Rowland, and should thus be in a position to and should thus be in a position to bring the entire foreign representation into popular disfavor.

Silverberg's operations have extend-

Mr. Thomas Pollard

Desires to announce to his friends that he is now connected with

Schwarzschild Brothers

Jewelers, Second and Broad Sts.

MOVE IN BEHALF

State Department Instructs Page to Use Good Offices for Arrested Woman.

Special to The Times-Dispatch.1 Department moved promptly to-day in interests of Mrs. Lucille Rand, daughter of former Governor Henry T. Clage, of California, who is under arrest in Dublin, Ireland, on the charge of kidnapping Irish children.

The facts in the case were presented to-day formally to Secretary Bryan, and Mrs. William A. Cullop, president of the Woman's National Democratic Australia League, who represents hundreds of Democratic League, who represents hundreds of Democratic Woman's National Democratic League, who represents hundreds of Democratic women, was indignant when she learned of Lucille Rand's imprisonment.

Conference in Session.

Windsur, Va., October 28.—The Eastth Virginia Christian Conference, repcesenting 7,000 members, is in session at Mt. Carmel Christian Church, near Walters, Va. There are 150 delegates in attendance. Rev. C. H. Rowland, f Franklin, is president; Rev. I. W.
Johnson, of Suffolk, secretary, and W.
if, Jones, Jr., of Suffolk, treasurer.

Prisonment.

"I am sure no one who knows either Governor Gage or Lucille Rand, even by reputation, will tolerate the idea of any but the very highest motives for her charitable care of Irish children."

Mrs. Rheta Childs Dorr, editor of the Suffragist, who has recently returned to this country from England, described the treatment dealt out to Mrs. Rand as "outrigeous" and another example of "the English viewpoint of the rights of women."

Charles Haase & Sons

119 W. Broad Street.

Comprehensive Display of Fashionable Fur Garments

Our stock this season the largest ever shown in Richmond, and are of the highest quality and lowest prices.

The new feature of every garment will at once appeal to the well-dressed woman, and every Fur which is now desirable and stylish is here represented.

Schwarzschild Brothers The Bride's Silver

WHITE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR

and which may become the revered heirloom of the years to come, should be chosen from a collection where each piece is correct in design, of faultless workmanship and of a weight sufficient for its

Never before has there been spread before gift-seekers so extensive a variety of silver articles as awaits their choosing at this

The ideal wedding gift is not necessarily a costly one-because there is such a wealth of appropriate articles HERE that you can readily select without exceeding the price you may have in mind.

At this time, as at all other times, the welcome to come and look at the Schwarzschild stocks and feel at home is emphasized.

Schwarzschild Brothers

RICHMOND'S LEADING JEWELERS.

Second and Broad Streets

STANDARY TO THE PROPERTY OF TH